Lyrics of Love and Laughter

By
Paul Laurence Dunbar

New York
Dodd, Mead and Company
1903

The Poet.

He sang of life, serenely sweet,
both, now and then, a deeper note.
From some high peak, high yet remote,
He voiced the world's absorbing heat.

He sang of love when Earth was young,
And love, itself was in his lays;
But ah, the world, it turned to brass
A jingle in a broken tongue.

Sincerely Yours,

Paul Lumen Dunham.

"The Bowery will be his romance, Broadway his lyric,
and the Park his pastoral;
the river and the glory of it all, his epics, and he will look
